

Other documentation to be submitted

Certificate of approval of the research project by another accredited IEC/CEIm in Spain in the case of sample transfers (approval of the project in which a sample is transferred).

If available, the certificate of approval of the Ethics Committee of the coordinating centre in the case of international studies.

Financial report: if the project is financed and/or involves medical devices.

Certificate of insurance policy with list of exclusions.

CE marking certificate and technical data sheet in the case of studies involving medical devices.

Any other documentation intended for potential study participants.